

Inbound Assistant™

All of your inbound responses managed professionally and effortlessly – whether you're around or not.

Overview

- Email, phone, text, social media... Keep your outbound campaigns running on schedule without being slowed down by inbound resource constraints. We'll handle your responses!
- Boxpilot's trained live agents – will respond to the emails, text messages, social media or phone calls your campaign generates and collect information, work from scripts and manage your messages. Responders will connect with a real person positioned as your assistant, not a machine. Individual attention will kick start the relationship with your firm and identify you as an executive peer.
